Instead of supporting
President Obama's
Clean Energy Bill, he sided with big corporate polluters.

CIRO RODRIGUEZ

Stood Against President Obama,
But Sided With George W. Bush

LCVTX12001

Against President Obama's Clean Energy Jobs Plan

When President Obama proposed legislation that could have created nearly 2 million jobs, Rodriguez joined with Tea Party extremists and voted against him.<sup>1</sup>

Supported the Harmful Bush Energy Agenda

Rodriguez agreed with one President's energy agenda: President Bush's. He voted for the Bush plan to weaken the Clean Air Act, the Clean Water Act, and even the Safe Drinking Water Act, letting corporate polluters off the hook for endangering our families.<sup>2</sup>
