ON GREEN JOBS AND CLEAN ENERGY, CIRO RODRIGUEZ STANDS AGAINST PRESIDENT OBAMA

OPPOSING PRESIDENT OBAMA'S CLEAN ENERGY PLAN

Corporate special interests in Washington can count on Ciro Rodriguez. That's because he voted with the Tea Party, against President Obama's plan to invest more in clean and renewable forms of energy like wind and solar, which could have created nearly 2 million new jobs.

[House Roll Call Vote 477, 6/26/09; University of California-Berkeley, 9/28/09]

BUT VOTING FOR GEORGE W. BUSH'S ENERGY BILL

Rodriguez voted to support Bush's energy bill, which weakened regulations that protect our water and air from toxic pollution. When it counted, he stood with George W. Bush, not President Obama. [House Roll Call Vote 241, 6/15/04]
