GEORGE ALLEN voted to give billions in tax breaks to companies that ship jobs overseas.

Clean energy jobs are a key to America's future.

But with people like George Allen in Washington, we may have to search far and wide—halfway around the globe—to find them.

Instead of cracking down on outsourcing, George Allen voted to give billions in tax breaks to companies that ship jobs overseas. He voted for $39 billion in tax breaks for companies that ship jobs to China and other countries.

Allen opposes tax incentives for clean energy, which could result in solar panels and wind turbines being built in China rather than right here in Virginia.

Tim Kaine or George Allen. On job creation – a world of difference.

| George Allen | Tim Kaine |
|--|--|
| Voted to keep tax breaks for companies that ship jobs overseas (S. Amdt. 210, Senate Vote 63, 3/15/05) | Supports eliminating tax breaks for companies that ship American jobs overseas, including clean energy jobs. |
| Co-sponsored a measure to undermine tax incentives for wind energy, which help U.S. manufacturers compete with China, and keep jobs in America. (S.1034; S.Amdt 961, Senate Vote 150, 6/22/05) | Supports cracking down on China's unfair trade practices, including currency manipulation, that cost America jobs in clean energy and other sectors. |
| Supported granting China full access to U.S. markets. (Richmond Times Dispatch, 10/29/00) | A proven job creator—here in America, here in Virginia. Under Kaine, Forbes named Virginia "Best for Business" for four consecutive years. |
